THE JEWEL THAT IS JORDAN IV

TUESDAY 14TH TO MONDAY 27TH OCTOBER 2008

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF THE LORD MONTAGU OF BEAULIEU

THE ULTIMATE TOUR FOR CONNOISSEURS IN THE AUTOMOTIVE WORLD OF EXCLUSIVE CLASSIC CARS

“The Jewel that is Jordan” was founded in 2003 by the entrepreneur Jonathon Lyons. The event took place for the first time among the stunning surroundings of The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan. Forty-four rare and classic cars set off from the Red Sea port of Aqaba and experienced the breathtaking landscape and historic destinations.

Continuing with this unique motoring adventure, “The Jewel” came back to the Kingdom in 2005, this time with 56 precious vintage vehicles and conducted under the patronage of HRH Prince Feisal Al-Hussein and the Lord Montagu of Beaulieu.

The Jewel that is Jordan III was held over the period 10th to 23rd May 2007. 30 vintage classic cars were welcomed in Jordan by Her Majesty The Queen Rania Al-Abdullah as the Patron of this third event The Lord Montagu of Beaulieu remained our events British Patron.

The success of these three spectacular events has created a demand amongst connoisseurs of classic car tours that the “The Jewel” should return to Jordan once again. And so now the unforgettable and exclusive Jewel That is Jordan IV will be held over the period 14th to 27th October 2008. The Lord Montagu of Beaulieu remains our events British Patron.

This is a truly five star event with the best cuisine and five star hotels you would wish for.

Participation will be by invitation only. And this event is limited to 25 cars only.

Aqaba, surrounded by important trading zones, remained relatively insignificant until the Arab Revolt during the Second World War. During this time Aqaba became important for British supplies from Egypt to Trans-Jordan and Palestine. Aqaba has since developed to become a vibrant port of huge significance to Jordan and the surrounding region.

The souk is located in the centre of the old town and is a mere ten minutes walk from the hotel. You can find here a wide range of traditional goods and crafts including silverware, spices, clothing and antiques, as well as assorted duty free goods. Aqaba has clean sandy beaches and transparent water making it an ideal location for sunbathing and water sports. It has an excellent museum, aquarium and claims the site of the oldest church in the world as well as a Crusader castle, later rebuilt by the Mameluks as a fort.

In the evening a Cocktail Reception will be held, generously hosted by ASEZA (the Aqaba Special Economic Zone Authority). ASEZA have been central in the expansion and modernisation of the city of Aqaba and surrounding areas.

Meanwhile the cars will be lined-up outside the Rest House so providing an ideal photo-shoot opportunity in front of the famous red sandstone cliffs. Modern boutiques offer everything from local handicrafts to the latest imported fashions. Towering above Amman, in an area known as the Citadel, excavations have revealed structures from the Neolithic period, through to the Hellenistic and late Roman period, and of the Arab Islamic period. The structures include the Temple of Hercules, the Umayyad Palace and the Byzantine Church. At the foot of the Citadel, carved into the hill, lies the 6,000 seat Roman Theatre, still used for various events today. Another newly restored theatre is the Odeon, containing 500 seats and is frequently used for concerts.

Visit Petra

Tour Petra
Lunch at the hotel
Champagne Reception at Little Petra

On Monday you will be given the opportunity to explore 'The Hidden Treasury of the Lost Nabatean City of Petra'. We recommended that you walk through "Al-Siq", the historic approach to Petra, which follows a chasm a kilometre long with walls soaring 200 metres above. The locals will try to persuade you to travel by horse and cart, though we suggest you save this pleasure for the return journey up-hill at the end of the day! The journey into the City is simply breathtaking. This original entrance to the ancient Nabataean City of Petra takes you downward through a winding gorge dramatised by the huge range of coloured sandstone embedded in the ancient rock walls. At the end of the Siq, Petra's most famous monument, the Treasury, comes into view. Petra is a great feat of engineering, with its unique architecture and sophisticated water channels. Petra (meaning 'rock' in Greek) is the legacy of the Nabatean race, an industrious Arab people who settled in the area some 2,000 years ago.

The climax of the tour takes place at the evening after exploring Petra, a private Gala Dinner in Little Petra.

As I am sure you are aware Jordan is a modern forward thinking country full of excellent restaurants, bars and hotels yet steeped in history, custom and tradition.

CLIMATE: Sunny skies and warm, dry weather. Summers are hot, but cooler nights are common in the desert and hilly areas. You will need plenty of sunscreen throughout your journey and it is recommended that you drink plenty of bottled water; also to cover up in the cooler evenings.

Typical temperatures are: Centigrade (Fahrenheit)

Amman.	Aqaba.	Petra.	Dead Sea.
14-27 (57-81)	20-33 (68-91)	14-24 (57-75)	22-33 (72-91)

CLOTHES: The dress code for this trip is as varied as the locations you will be visiting. Whilst visiting tourist sites shorts and casual short sleeve shirts and blouses are acceptable for both ladies and gentlemen. It is only whilst visiting downtown Amman that ladies are advised to wear long sleeves and either trousers or skirts with the gentlemen opting for long trousers. This is not essential but it allows you to blend in more easily with the locals. For both the Palace and Embassy receptions a blazer and tie/suit is required and the Royal Gala dinner is black tie. When visiting mosques ladies will need to fully cover the hair with a headscarf and wear long sleeves and trousers or skirts. Should your appearance at the mosque be unacceptable to the custodians they will supply you with a head to toe black garment.

N.B. No official visits to Mosques in the Itinerary.

CURRENCY: The Jordanian currency is the Dinar with 1 Jordanian Dinar equal to approximately £1. Although credit cards are widely accepted in hotels, restaurants and tourist shops it is advisable to carry at least £500 in cash – sterling – for petrol, food and incidental purchases. As sterling is widely accepted in Jordan this cash should be kept in sterling and changed as required at hotel receptions. Cash machines are available in Aqaba, Petra and Amman (outside Intercontinental hotel) so withdrawing additional funds should not prove a problem.

FLIGHTS: Royal Jordanian has now confirmed that they will fly us to Aqaba. There will be a connection in Amman. All passengers should aim to be at Heathrow's Terminal 3, two hours prior to departure. Jordan is two hours ahead of GMT and seven hours ahead of US Eastern Standard Time.

LUGGAGE: There will be a luggage service between hotels and from room to room at all times.

HOTELS and RESTAURANTS: All of the hotels and restaurants selected are Five Star and have a wonderful selection of traditional Arabic and modern Arabic fusion cuisine; they also provide a large variety of local and imported wine. Should you enjoy the occasional sundowner or aperitif, alcohol is readily available throughout Jordan although you might like to take a selection of your favourite tipples with you. All types of cuisine are available in Jordan and are of an extremely high standard.

STAYING IN CONTACT: Luckily, those of you wishing to maintain contact with the UK by either mobile phone or email will be pleased to hear that your phones should work perfectly in all parts of the country and all of the hotels you are using will have internet access and business centers. Additionally, Jordan works on standard 220- 240v and three pin plugs (same as UK standard plugs), so recharging of phones should not present a problem. Also you will be allocated a local mobile telephone sim card at a nominal charge; bring a spare phone if you have one.

Internet is readily available in hotels for those that require it and GSM Mobile Phones work in all areas.

VISAS: Visas will be issued on arrival at Aqaba Airport.

For people travelling separately from the group, please arrange your visas at: The Embassy of The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, 6 Upper Phillimore Gardens, London W8 Telephone Number: +44(0) 20 76373685
